Neon Blight is a 2D monster shmup with a gothic twist. Ride your lonely Hero-ship to find the evil monsters and their master. Defeat enemies with high powered lasers, projectile attacks, and a few Voodoo curses. There are four modes: Normal, Arcade, Survival, and a difficulty mode that can be either Normal or Hard. There are also a ton of Collectables (think Minikit/Currency) hidden in each stage that can be turned in for extra lives, Bonus Medals, and increased health. You can choose between red and blue bar powerups, but this will not effect the gameplay. Levels are procedurally generated, so if you die, it's a fresh start. There are also two player online competitive modes, Capture the Flag and Missile. Game Features: 4 Difficulty levels (Normal, Arcade, Survival, Hard) 4 game modes (Normal, Arcade, Survival, Hard) 40+ "Voodoo" hits to get multiple shimmies and combos for a Voodoo Hit Weapon upgrades: lasers, bullets, extra health, extra projectile damage, more shots, etc. Level Progression: Enemies get stronger and enemy projectiles get more accurate, so you have to figure out your strategies ahead of time. Online Competitive Modes: Capture the Flag and Missile Want more of this game? Check out Neon Blight: The Animated Film! with a gothic twist. Ride your lonely Hero-ship to find the evil monsters and their master.” Gameplay: In Neon Blight, you are a lone fighter on a quest to take down the Seven Deadly Sins. There are seven deadly sins that the Seven Sins lead the darkness away from. They each have their own sins that need to be destroyed and that is what you are going to try and do. First, you’ll have to choose a ship and a weapon. The two weapons you have are your normal laser and your Voodoo.

or something like that with this tile speed won't be a real issue. Shadly_G 01-09-2018, 10:13 PM Whoa, that's pretty insane. April_T 01-09-2018, 10:17 PM Video + Wallpapers! Striker999 01-10-2018, 10:20 PM video + wallpapers? how complex is this question? It's called volume and you basically have that backwards. But in reality they both are like "screens" and both have an app that plays videos or does wallpapers based on what you set up in the volume that plays different movies or wallpapers. Striker999 01-10-2018, 10:24 PM This thread won't be left alone for long lol Throw an Amiga 2000 in, as long as it works with MSFN I wouldn't mind. Jamirv 01-10-2018, 10:32 PM This thread won't be left alone for long lol You still have an Amiga 2000!? Come on now. Th3St1K3 01-10-2018, 11:19 PM You still have an Amiga 2000!? Come on now. He does. It's his ROMs and the Amiga just sits in the closet collecting dust. Striker999 01-10-2018, 11:30 PM He does. It's his ROMs and the Amiga just sits in the closet collecting dust. If you don't know what that means I would guess you were never really that into Amiga's. That or you're just messing with us.
