TV was an American television series that ran from 1965 to 1966. It was hosted by Mister T.O., the host of the comedic television show Candid Camera. The show was a variation on the same television series, with most of the same characters and many of the same music and artistic elements from the first series. However, not only was it a "hiatus" in the 1960s, but it was actually scheduled against some of the most popular shows of the period. Musical guest stars of the show include Jackie Wilson and the Impressions, as well as The Beatles themselves on October 22, 1966. The show was produced by Herbert Stothart and was produced in
