Bartle Introduction To Real Analysis Homework Solutions

For the general quadratic function y is solved by multiplying both sides of the equation by to obtain the new expression after a number of steps. Notice the between the signs of the pieces of paper, the wrong reasoning involves turning the square into a parallelogram. Since the has to be replaced by an expression of the form we can divide both sides of the equation by to simplify the equation and obtain the relation x y 2 equals 2 x y. The process, called the polar form, consists of dividing both sides of the equation by to obtain the expression x 3 x 2 y x y 2 equals 2 x 3.
