Clickomania Activator [32|64bit] [April-2022]

The object of the game is to click on the right tiles to make them disappear. There are only two types of tiles, clickable tiles and blocks. Clickable tiles move the next piece of tile that comes into view. You can click on a column of connected tiles to make the tiles that appear that much higher. It can happen that you have to click on a block of tiles, but you are allowed to, because blocks of tiles have only one clickable tile. If you double-click on a block of tiles it will open up the move path. Move the tiles that are in the view and click the pieces that are not visible on the floor. I recommend you try the different mode: Do NOT show tiles on the floor, only on the top, every tile you click does not have to show up Do NOT show tiles on the floor, only on the top, every tile you click has to show up Do NOT show tiles on the floor, only on the top, every tile you click will show up Do NOT show tiles on the floor, only on the top, every tile you click that makes you a click maniac.
