With this little tool, you can simply .nexe was detected as malware by 39 virus scanners. Use .nex as a helper program for experimenting with Windows. Run .next (Remote Mode), then a list of applications under the Windows 7 user will appear, right click and select Next. After that, a list of drivers unknown to you will appear, in which there will be a list of replacements. Use Next to remove unnecessary drivers. If your device does not have built-in antivirus components, install an antivirus as part of the operating system. This will provide protection against malware. After you disable your antivirus, try updating your antivirus program. Get rid of the Windows antivirus and return to the system in safe mode if possible.
