This is new in all sort of CM versions On CM 07/08 Jul 18, 2008 It is confirmed on the official website of the game: Very soon, for the sake of sports betting, we would like to introduce the new Diablo tactical rule. At the same time, we have made a few technical improvements in the tactic (CM 07/08). The CM 07/08 version of the Diablo tactic is now: "Diablo", that is, it makes no use of disguise. Diablo (the new tactical rule) was developed to reduce the possibility of "mistake" when a player selects his/her own formation. It has been tested on several professional teams. The tactic will not be allowed to use this formation for the amateur league (or the professional league, if the match is organized with this tactic), but the tactic can use in the professional leagues. The technical improvements in this version have made it to do what it was designed to do. Diablo won't change the original formation of this tactic. There is no other formation that can be used using the Diablo tactical rule. This tactic won't change any formation of any other tactical rule.
