

Fit Furs Goethe Certificate: A1 Book & CD (German edition) Frauke van der Werf (February 03, 2007 - November 28, 2007)) is a German-French fashion designer who made a name for himself in the 1960s with women's sportswear. In the shadow of her famous father, Frau van der Werf founded her own company, thus setting the stage for the development of the modern fashion industry. In her only season "Black Chamber of Fashion", shown in 1968, Frau's creative fantasy was developed - Froco, panties "the last hope for a virgin". Inspired by the collection of her husband - designer Jacques Leger, who represented the clothing line "King Fisher" - she decided to design modern women's fashion herself. This season, colors range from ultramarine to burgundy and brown. Frau's husband, Norbert van der Wesen, a composer and singer, often worked with her. Her own creativity also appeared thanks to his efforts. It has been more than 60 years since Frau Werf had hip surgery and now she is back in fashion and has also opened her own fashion house. Next season, the FroCo line will be further developed. The information is provided for reference only and is not a public offer!
