Grier will finish his career in Ann Arbor as a graduate assistant coach. Playing in Ann Arbor, home of the Big Ten and college hockey, is where Mike Grier will end his days as a college hockey player. It had been a long time coming for Grier, who had committed to the University of Michigan as a sophomore in 2009 and was considered a future star. An undersized forward, Grier had been an early-entry candidate for the 2013 NHL Draft, but he ended up going sixth overall to the Buffalo Sabres.
