► For the Throneworld In a fantasy world full of life and adventure, there exists a great fortress known as the Throneworld. However, because it is continuously under attack by the monsters of the region, the people in the Throneworld have gradually lost their dignity and even their lives. In order to save this great fortress, a number of adventurers were chosen. Despite their oath, they were not able to protect the Throneworld, and it was destroyed. After the heroic and valiant race of elves mysteriously disappeared, the Throneworld fell into the hands of monsters, and the lands between were engulfed in war and chaos. ► A Saga of Adventure Reborn Among these heroes, Tarnished was found. Having destroyed the monsters and restoring peace to the lands between, his Majesty the King, the Prince of the Land, and Tarnished were together born. Tarnished and his comrades acquired the power of the Elden Ring and set forth as the guild of heralds for the main land. However, after a long time, when Tarnished suddenly fell into an abyss, he lost his companions and was forced to rebuild his new life. ► What Would You Do in a Time of War? In the rich and diverse lands between, you can choose your play style, have countless possibilities to play, and freely shape your own world. Can you become the savior of the Lands Between? Will you live in a time of war and rebuild the abandoned land? Tarnished: A Fantasy Action RPG is launching on Steam on July 19th! THANKS! "Hey, Dragon Quest. That's right, it's Fantasy Wars 3D." "Fantasy Wars 3D was launched exactly one month ago in Japan. I am your new reviewer from America. I came here because I have always been a fan of this game. So far, Fantasy Wars 3D is quite the same as the previous two. We get to ride the 'dragon', we can purchase upgrades by being successful in battle, we can even, if you want, build your own 'farm' to generate an economy from which you can purchase 'agri-tables' or 'fabri-tables'. All in all, Fantasy Wars 3D is a cool game. So, in short, it's another game that has everything that fans of the genre could want. 'Well, this is nice', you think. But when you actually start playing the game, you realize that it's not as fun as you thought. It's not that the game doesn't have many of the elements that make it fun. What happens is, as you are playing the game, you begin to grow familiar with the system of the game. You are no longer just finding the right path. You are also having to find the best possible upgrades. 'This is getting pretty dull.'

With Fantasy Wars 3D, the level limit is 20 so that even when you're killed by a dragon, you can always come back and fight again. But, if you are consistently defeated because the monsters on the field are stronger than you, after all, that's the whole point of playing it. You never get a 'bad feeling' when you are defeated because you're not a 'bad gamer'. You are not some kind of monster who can't win. I think it's that if you defeat your opponent, you can feel some kind of victory. What I really really hate about Fantasy Wars 3D is that you can't change your character. Like, you can't just customise your character as you want it. Instead, you have to make do with the one that the game gives you. This is really unnecessary bff6bb2d33

How to play: The task at hand is simple: you need to use the power of the Elden Ring and uncover the mysteries of the Lands Between and make a name for yourself. Thus, you must explore and battle against hostile beings, solve intriguing puzzles, and collect items in order to advance. There are a variety of quests and mini-games that you can partake in, and you can play alone as well as with other players. The action RPG has a focus on character customization and the ability to freely combine weapons, armor, and items with each other. Dawn, the Nethergate opens up, and fate begins. It's an unknown and hostile realm, filled with dangers lurking in the shadows. Once you journey there, you'll quickly realize that this is no ordinary paradise. Your goal is a very difficult one. It is to seek out and capture six elements. The six elements are, in order of importance, Mythril, Sapphire, Ruby, Emerald, Obsidian, and Pearl. But, if you are thinking about doing so, you'll find that they're not easy to capture. In order to capture them, you'll need to enlist the help of a friend in the form of an NPC named Asura. In addition to a standard mode of battle, you can enter the "Spirit Wolf" mode. Spirits are creatures that are the embodiment of a particular element. Asura (ΑΣΟΥΡΑ) The source of all life and power. Asura has the power of Destiny. He is awakened by the many trials you must endure and he becomes stronger as a result. The power of Asura will aid in battle. Asura is usually accompanied by a Guardian Spirit. Guardian Spirit (ΓΥΤΤΡΓΣΑΝΑ) An unconscious spirit. Guardians are weaker than Asura but just as vital to the living. They accompany Asura and he protects them. Guardians can be revived even if they are unconscious. Element

When an adventurer is able to capture a single element at the end

My name is Cody, ive been playing sorcerers for over 6 years now, im 22 years old, and would be very willing for a set time of night to play. im 1,590 rated within this website, and thought that is all it took to meet that requirement.. high ratings dont mean much when your not playing, unless its for gameplay. ill do any version, i was a mod in kinfolk, and am self-paced now with grinding lv 100s. i have credit card if its needed too. im currently apart of a rune-a-materia clan called Orchamess. I've been playing cs for years now, last about 2 years, however i've been playing a while. The reason im posting here is because im a very laid back person that's pretty good with anything that involves strategy and tactics. Most of my experience is from from watching other players on ork, alpha clan druid. I play on the limecity server I really enjoy playing on the elders and going through with the quests at least 2 times a day (120 hours ips). because ive done this 2x I have 5k points I will post my habits and things I do 1. I do 1-4 a day 2. I solo 4-9 hours a day 3. I only duel 20 minutes tops, I never have more then 5 players lined up at a time always playing on easy and looking for players to duel. I mainly log into the server to play raid (8.25-8.50pm). i come in war but ill be of help in raids. if ask me i will help with the op (i do help sometimes when they ask. same goes for defense fail). Not too much details but ill help out as best
