Time Moni is a great app to keep track of time and get an overview of how your employees are spending their time. In addition to keeping track of how much time is spent on tasks, the app also keeps track of which device users are using to accomplish those tasks. The more you can provide your employees with the best tools and resources, the more efficient and productive they are going to become. Whether you want to find out whether your staff is sticking to their deadlines or just how much time they spend on emailing, there are hundreds of things that Time Moni can help you keep track of. Time Moni is compatible with both Android and iOS devices, and is very easy to use. Just fire up the app and you can immediately start monitoring your staff's time and device usage. What you can get out of Time Moni: - Customisable view: With Time Moni, you are able to view activity reports in a variety of ways, from a simple weekly overview to breaking down reports by day. - Tasks and times: Users can create tasks to be tracked, and once they are created, users get a reminder when it is time to check on those tasks. Every task also has a time associated with it which enables users to see what time of day or day of the week they performed a task. - Device usage: One of Time Moni's most useful features is its simple device recognition tool, which allows you to track which device users are using in order to view reports. - Detailed reports: Time Moni allows you to create custom reports, and once users have created one, they can see all the specific data that they have entered about a task, or about their usage for that device. To get started, just enter the email address of the person you want to monitor, and then complete a quick short profile and sign in. From there, you can create or monitor your own tasks. The app is compatible with both Android and iOS devices, but since it is a web-based app, users must first visit the website in order to create or use the application. Time Moni Pros: - Effortless: You can fire up Time Moni on your phone, and you will be ready to go. There are no complicated tasks to be performed, or permission prompts to deal with, just click and start tracking. - The app works fast: Everything is very fast and efficient, no lag or downtime occurs when using the app. - Device recogn
