Bugs, website errors, and incompatibility with my computer all can be easily.Determination of the absolute configuration of a perylene dicarboxylic acid from a combination of in situ chemical derivatization and X-ray crystallography. An undescribed perylene dicarboxylic acid, 1,10-bis(4-carboxystyryl)-9,9-dimethyl perylene, was prepared in high yield and high enantiomeric excess from perylene-3-carboxylic acid. The absolute configuration of the acid was determined by X-ray crystallography of the derived bis-quaternary ammonium salt. The application of the combination of the (S)-(1,3-dimethyl)-2-phenylindan-2-ol--chloroform complexation (SID-CL) and the column-chromatographic derivatization procedures for in situ determination of the absolute configuration of C40 carboxylic acids is also reported.As part of your daily diet, the vegetables, fruit, nuts and seeds that you eat at breakfast and lunchtime will fill you up and give you energy to help you power through your day. Here are eight easy ways to increase your intake of nutrition-rich food and sources of fibre: Start the day with a healthy breakfast Breakfast is a time of day when you can load up on some of your favourite foods - think dried fruit and yoghurt, fresh fruit and yoghurt or eggs and avocado or salmon. Stay away from breakfast staples such as toast, cereal and sausages. These foods tend to be higher in fat and sugar and the food they contain isn't going to satisfy you long term. Instead, switch to an alternative meal such as porridge, muesli

I need to build a very simple site, with a view-only CMS backend. I would like to avoid PHP frameworks that are complex to set up and manage, but I'd like a decent platform for launching a public website quickly, without fuss. Could any of you advise me on the best place to start with looking for a PHP CMS? A: I know of two that are really fantastic at being simple to set up and manage: Drupal: Joomla!: A: If you are looking for a framework-like tool there are CMS's which are great for this. If you are looking for a "push button" solution, take a look at WordPress' "Forum-like site builder": Wordpress doesn't do much more than a forum as far as page creation is concerned, so you might be interested in it.
