Do you want to share your pictures with friends via Facebook, LinkedIn or Email?

If so then you might want to give Photojojo (Mac and PC) a try. Photojojo is free and gives you 10,000 free prints plus over 1,000 free albums to share with friends. Their online photo album uploads to Facebook, E-mail and websites as well. With a brand new update you can now upload photos directly from your camera. Photojojo is not a program, rather it is a web service that allows you to access your photos online from anywhere. You have to sign up for free on their web site and have a Photojojo account. Then you will have access to 10,000 free prints plus over 1,000 free albums. If you want to share your photos with others via their Web site or email you will need to download the free Photojojo software. Once you have installed Photojojo you have to create an account with them. This can be done either on their Mac or PC software.

Here is a short list of the Photojojo features included in their free version: Free
